

History

Rwanda: History and Hope

By Margee Ensign, Dean, School of International Studies

Ensign and coauthor William E. Bertrand of Tulane University document the innovative approaches Rwanda has taken toward governance, reconciliation, gender equity, education, health and economic growth since the 1994 genocide that resulted in the death of nearly a million Rwandans.

University Press of America, December 2009

Travel

A Temporary European: The Adventures of an American TV Reporter on the Continent

By Walt Christophersen '60, Apache Junction, AZ

Based in Germany and living as a European, Christophersen covered stories for a PBS newsmagazine in an area ranging from Iceland to Cyprus. The book includes behind-the-scenes looks at Radio Free Europe and CNN International.

Buckeroo Books, November 2009

A Traveler's Passport to Etiquette

By Lisa Mirza Grotts '84, San Francisco, CA

A handy guide for seasoned and not-so-seasoned travelers on travel etiquette, whether for business or pleasure.

Xlibris Corp, September 2009

Family

The High Definition Family: Tuning in Your Family Vision and Living It

By Sayer Strauch '85, Vancouver, WA

Strauch's book provides tools to fine-tune and redefine family life, create an energized family culture and realize family dreams.

Xulon Press, August 2009

Children and Young Adults

Becoming Royalty

By Cherish (Weber) Doll '90 BSE, Salida, CA

Doll's first book is a fairy tale about a young orphan girl who discovers her royal destiny through the mysterious and magical properties of her enchanted cloak.

Wheatmark Book Publishers, May 2009

We Were Here

By Matt de la Pena '96, Brooklyn, NY

In de la Pena's third novel for young adults, a boy sentenced to a group home breaks out with two unlikely companions and embarks on a journey to Mexico that becomes a path of self-discovery.

Delacorte Press Books for Young Readers, October 2009